

ANDY'S HALL OF SHAME

Welcome to my Hall of Shame, which is now (September 2026) the most popular feature on my website. Note that I also have a Hall of Fame with polar opposite individuals and products that I strongly recommend.

The Hall of Shame is a combination of public service announcement and retribution, as well as my attempt at obtaining justice in the court of public opinion. I've been called very brave for doing this, and also-- rarely, and mainly by the folks in the Hall-- crazy. Well, there's a thin red line between the brave and the crazy...lol. It's hard to rank these, but I've done my best to do so. Incidentally, the only reason I am able to publish these critiques is that I have my own law firm. Otherwise, I would not be able to take the risk-- some of the members of my Hall of Shame have already sued me with baseless, malicious cases in an effort to cancel/silence me. Those efforts are doomed to fail because I will never be silenced or censored on my own personal website. It's unfortunate that some people can't handle criticism of this type, which of course is unusual because few victims of horrible behavior are willing to publish other people's ethical, personal, and professional failings for all to see.

Opinions on my Hall of Shame are my own personal opinions and do not necessarily reflect the views of anyone else, such as folks at my law firm. I can neither confirm nor deny whether anyone in the firm shares any views expressed herein.

1. The Epstein Cabal - so evil that they set the standard of evil and have their own category.
2. 6x7 Networks, LLC and Lady Ben Cannon - taking the crown for worst legal and telecom experience of my life.

7. Xiangju "Jane" Zhang - a horrible and neglectful nanny who should have chosen a different field.
  8. Conrad Jack Rankin/Rick Troyan/@iimpctmedia/@truenorthtransparency - whacked out "First Amendment Auditors" who should be jailed for their crimes. Article here.
  9. Pro Veritas Law, LLP - a website shakedown scam initiated by a suspended attorney that is essentially ADA litigation for the Information Age. The only way to deal with this is responding aggressively.
  10. Perry, Johnson, Anderson, Miller & Moskowitz - a toxic law firm that is full of evil people.
  11. Adobe Systems - used to be a great company, now all they do is squeeze subscribers for money and prevent us from canceling.
  12. Bradley Bayan, Esq. - an unhinged, ridiculous, and outrageous attorney.
  13. CTK Law Group - steamroller of opposing parties, one of them calls himself "Supreme Leader" in his documents.
  14. Ligia Parmenter, Esq. - should not be practicing law due to her various issues.
  15. Timeshare RICO scam - I uncovered this Mexican timeshare scam where they use identities of retired attorneys, and nobody cares.
  16. Zheng Liu, Esq. - a bizarre attorney who had an entire takedown in a major newspaper written about him.
  17. Anthony Capobianco, Esq. - a heartless and evil attorney who continues to harass me.
  18. Mary Beth Alexander - a dishonest, sociopathic, and manipulative real estate agent with Compass.
  19. Ali Ghanbarian - a narcissistic sociopath magazine publisher in San Francisco who fancies himself important.
  20. Alain J. Cohen - yet another millionaire asshole CEO who needs a hard lesson in manners.
  21. FBI Special Agent Clearance Unit - they fabricate petty, ridiculous, and untrue reasons not to hire people who would have been hired, which crushes the candidates' chances with other Executive Branch agencies.
  22. SuperLawyers - an absolute scam created to sell advertising space, and that has nothing to do with merit or the practice of law. I finally had enough of this from seeing recent LinkedIn posts proudly announcing the inclusion of certain lawyers in SuperLawyers who have no business being praised.
  23. California Court of Appeal - the intermediate court of appeal in California is the most toxic, indifferent, megalomaniacal appellate court in the land. They misrepresent the facts, misapply the law, and use every trick in the book to affirm all trial court decisions, providing no meaningful recourse when prejudicial errors are made in trial courts. The sole reason for this is that the California Supreme Court only reviews a tiny fraction of cases; if they reviewed more cases, there would be less abuses in the intermediate court. I no longer advise clients to appeal, because doing so is simply futile. The latest case I had in the Court of Appeal shocks the conscience and was the last straw for me.
  24. Rare Biblio - a scam in which an offshore factory in India holds itself out to be a U.S.-based dealer in rare books. I ordered a copy of a famous novel (Hatchet by Gary Paulsen) as a gift for my daughter who is learning to read-- instead of what I ordered, I received a leather-bound tabloid newspaper called the Hatchet. Imagine my surprise when I went to complain and there was nothing I could do to return the order or ask for the correct item. So I peeled back the shipping label and examined it on my light table. It turns out it came from the Gyan factory in India, not California where Rare Biblio claims to be based, and includes a false customs label. I will do a full write-up in the near future. I don't think it's legal to print copyrighted works offshore without a license from the rights holder and then ship them into the United States claiming they are "Educational Books." But I digress. This really pissed me off, as you can tell.

25. Framework Computer - sent me a defective laptop, ghosted me, disputed my credit card dispute, and failed to refund me after I returned the product. Can't believe they are still in business. PROBLEM SOLVED!

26. UCLA I.T. Department - enabling criminals to scam people out of money intended for educational programs. PROBLEM SOLVED!

Can't believe Zheng Liu is so far down in my Hall of Shame, but that says a lot about the other people.
